

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Full Service Yoga and Wellness Center to Open in St. Helena:

St. Helena, CA - May 8th - On June 14th, 2008 Epiphany Yoga Center will open in the former Women's Center at 1229 Pine Street in downtown St. Helena. Owners, and St. Helena residents, Carolyn and Perry Butler (Juslyn Vineyards and Foot Candy) and Jodi and Michael Earls have come together to share with the community a "wellness destination to serve those interested in discovering inner peace and balance."

"After working privately with Jodi for the last two years and discovering many spiritual interests through our travels, Perry and I have found a calm and an awareness that we want to share with this wonderful community."

Jodi Earls, who is a certified Anusara Yoga instructor and has been a resident yoga teacher in the Napa Valley for many years, will act as general manager and programming director. "I am honored to have this opportunity to partner with the Butlers and to bring the best teachers in the Napa Valley under one roof to offer this community a wide variety of physical and spiritual wellness options."

Epiphany will offer numerous styles of yoga (Anusara, Forest, Hatha, Iyengar, Vinyasa Flow, among others) taught by the top yoga instructors in the Napa Valley (listed on the website; www.epiphanyyogacenter.com) as well as Tai-Chi, Pilates, Reiki, massage, nutrition counseling, qigong, acupuncture, children's programs, senior programs, prenatal programs, weekend workshops and teacher trainings.

The 2,300 square foot building will provide space for three studios: one for larger classes, one for small groups and one for private sessions. There will also be space dedicated to massage, acupuncture and retail for attire and accessories.
